

Ratomag

Ratomag, has taken up again the collaboration with Koxka, after some years R atomag Trading & Engineering is a limited liability partnership that started its operation in Egypt in 1975 and has since executed hundreds of projects serving the various industries including hotels, hospitals, institutions and factories. Ratomag currently employs over one hundred well trained employees responsible for the design, supply, installation and after sales service. Ratomag is one of Koxka's eldest partner. Over the last few years, the collaboration was very limited due to the poor market conditions. Now, the collaboration has been taken up again.

Ratomag is already reaching the largest local chains, such as Metro Egypt, as well as the multinational ones. They perform turn-key projects.
